

Robyn Rice Olmstead is passionate & determined about empowering couples to live their VISION. Every person and every couple has a vision, and sometimes it can get lost, buried or deflated in the midst of life, particularly when planning a wedding. As a couple, you deserve the right to be brilliant and inspired. Who better than the two of You to inspire YOURselves!

Robyn is an Agape licensed Practitioner and licensed Spiritual Counselor. She attended The University of the Americas in Mexico, where she majored in psychology. Later Robyn began training at the Agape International Spiritual Center, – a trans-denominational spiritual community founded by Rev. Dr. Michael Beckwith. Many know Dr. Beckwith from his appearances in THE SECRET, on OPRAH, Larry King and his own PBS Special entitled, “The Answer is You.”

Robyn has been working with couples and officiating weddings in a variety of settings since earning her license in 2001. She has a unique ability to hear, sense, and articulate what a couple is looking for as they are creating a wedding. Robyn loves offering workshops, retreats, resources, and counseling for couples with her partner, Gil William Olmstead, through their company, Inspired Beginnings. It truly is her joy to see your VISION come to life!

Robyn is also an actress, writer & teacher. She refers to herself as an "Artist." She is very passionate about social and global issues and loves combining this with anything artsy and inspiring. She is in love with her husband and their dog and 2 cats.
